WELCOME LETTER FROM SUPERINTENDENT SERRANO

January 11, 2024

Dear Students, Staff, Families, and Community,

Welcome to Maryland!

We extend a heartfelt greeting to the Clerc Classic XXII, a prestigious National Basketball Tournament and Cheerleading Competition. As you join us, we invite you to immerse yourselves in the enchanting charm of the beautiful city of Frederick!

Hosting the Clerc Classic at the Maryland School for the Deaf is a distinct honor that brings us immense pleasure. We eagerly anticipate an exhilarating three-day weekend filled with outstanding basketball and spirited cheering. A warm and sincere welcome is extended to our esteemed guests from Florida, Fremont, Indiana, Lexington, Model Secondary, Riverside, and Texas.

Despite Maryland's modest size, our state boasts diverse landscapes, from the picturesque beaches of the Eastern Shore to the majestic mountains of Western Maryland. In this extraordinary state, where the Chesapeake Bay glistens and the United States Naval Academy stands tall, both urbanites and nature enthusiasts encourage your visit. We take pride in the prowess of the Baltimore Ravens and Baltimore Orioles, as well as the esteemed Fort McHenry in Baltimore—the birthplace of the U.S. national anthem, "The Star-Spangled Banner," penned by Francis Scott Key during the War of 1812. Maryland is renowned for its culinary delights, with blue crabs taking center stage, particularly in our delectable crab cakes and dishes. (And who can resist a dash of Old Bay seasoning?)

On behalf of the MSD Orioles, it is with genuine enthusiasm that we embrace the role of your hosts this weekend. We eagerly anticipate a weekend filled with camaraderie, spirited competition, and the embodiment of true sportsmanship.

Enjoy your stay in Maryland this weekend, and make sure to come back for another visit!

Best Regards,

THE CLERC CLASSIC STORY

As we once again come together from all over the country to engage in intense, often emotional competitions in front of hordes of passionate fans, we are also reaffirming our commitment to the intrinsic value of deaf education and schools for the deaf. The U.S. deaf school model was birthed by Laurent Clerc, who made the fateful decision to embark on a legendary years-long journey over 200 years ago. Because of his monumental decision, many generations of deaf and hard-of-hearing children in America have benefited in many wonderful and amazing ways. This Clerc Classic basketball and cheerleading tournament pays homage to the incredible courage and conviction of a Deaf Frenchman who brought Deaf education to the United States. But who is this man named Laurent Clerc, and why is the tournament named after him?

Laurent Clerc was born in France in 1785 and did not go to a school until he was twelve years old. He did not write, read, nor sign until he went to school two hours away in Paris. Once he finally reached school, Clerc seized on the opportunities to learn and thrive. By the time an American father of a deaf child came to Paris, desperate for something, anything, that can help his daughter grow as a deaf person, Laurent Clerc was working as a teacher. That remarkable leap from a preteen with no language to a charismatic teacher fluent in LSF (French Sign Language) and written French was a preview of incredible things Clerc would go on to do when he said yes to the American father when asked to help found a school for the deaf in Hartford, Connecticut.

Clerc boarded a boat, as depicted in this year's tournament logo, sailed for 52 days, and then went on to co-found the American School for the Deaf with the American father, Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet. During Clerc's American teaching career, his students went out to establish thirty schools for the deaf all over the United States.

Six out of eight participating 2024 Clerc Classic schools were founded during Clerc's lifetime*.

Michael Weinstock, former Athletic Director of Model Secondary School for the Deaf, founded the Clerc Classic tournament in 2000 and chose the tournament name to celebrate the deaf education and deaf students-athletes as gusty and determined as Laurent Clerc. As you go out to cheer or play your hearts out or to root for a team, know that this Clerc Classic tournament is a part of a proud centuries-long tradition of friendship and competition among the schools for the deaf. Let's make the Clerc Classic XXII edition a worthy addition to the deaf school sports annals!

* Schools for the deaf established during Laurent Clerc's lifetime: California-Fremont, Indiana, Lexington, Maryland, Model Secondary (originally named Kendall School for the Deaf), and Texas.

LETTER FROM TOURNAMENT CHAIR & ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

January 11, 2024

Greetings!

On behalf of the Maryland School for the Deaf, it is with immense joy that we extend a warm welcome to the Clerc Classic XXII Basketball Tournament and Cheerleading Competition!

This marks the 22nd edition of the Clerc Classic, an event that originated at the Model Secondary School for the Deaf in Washington D.C. in 2001 and has since blossomed into a cherished national tournament, showcasing the finest talents of our basketball and cheerleading teams from across the country.

A heartfelt thanks is extended to the MSD administration for their support, without which this tournament would not be possible for our school community and visitors. We also express our gratitude to our esteemed top-level sponsors: Sorensen, Gallaudet University, and Maryland Relay, for their generous contributions. We consider ourselves truly fortunate to be part of a supportive community where we can connect with deaf talent and volunteers, inviting them to share their expertise and time with our tournament participants.

Our gratitude goes out to the dedicated committee members who have worked tirelessly to bring the Clerc Classic to life and ensure a memorable experience for all participants. We encourage you to take a moment to express your appreciation to these individuals.

Over 200 years ago, Laurent Clerc and Rev. Dr. Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet laid the foundation for Deaf education by establishing the American School for the Deaf, marking a pivotal moment in our history. This occasion invites us to reflect on the profound contributions of Laurent Clerc and his associates to Deaf education. Inspired by their enduring legacy, let us aspire to go above and beyond for our students and communities, nurturing a spirit of support, inclusion, and camaraderie.

As the competition unfolds, we wish all participants an enjoyable basketball tournament and cheerleading competition. May you have a fantastic time, give your best on the court, and may the spirit of sportsmanship prevail!

Warm Regards,

The technology solution for families who value connection.

Keeping your family connected is key, especially when it comes to the needs of your children. The Maryland Accessible Telecommunications (MAT) program can ensure your student has access to telecommunications equipment—such as amplified phones and tablets—making learning and communication possible and accessible for your child. We invite you to apply now to see if your child qualifies for free assistive equipment through the MAT program.

The MAT program benefits Maryland residents ages three and older who are Deaf, hard of hearing, DeafBlind, or are living with limited speech, mobility, or cognitive abilities.*

Video Relay Services

Our Products Meet All Your VRS Needs

No matter where you are, we have you covered with Deaf-centric products. In the classroom. In your dorm. In your office. On-the-go. And now, in online meetings, with our newest offering, Sorenson for Zoom!

Sorenson for Zoom

VRS in your department or parent meetings or online classes: see everyone on one screen.

Lumina Videophone

Enjoy our highest quality video in your office, home or dorm.

ntouch for Computers

VRS on your computer helps save desk space in your classroom

ntouch for Mobile

VRS on-the-go for both work and personal use

Wavello

Built into Lumina and ntouch: see everyone on the call – great for calls between Deaf and hearing friends

Popular features

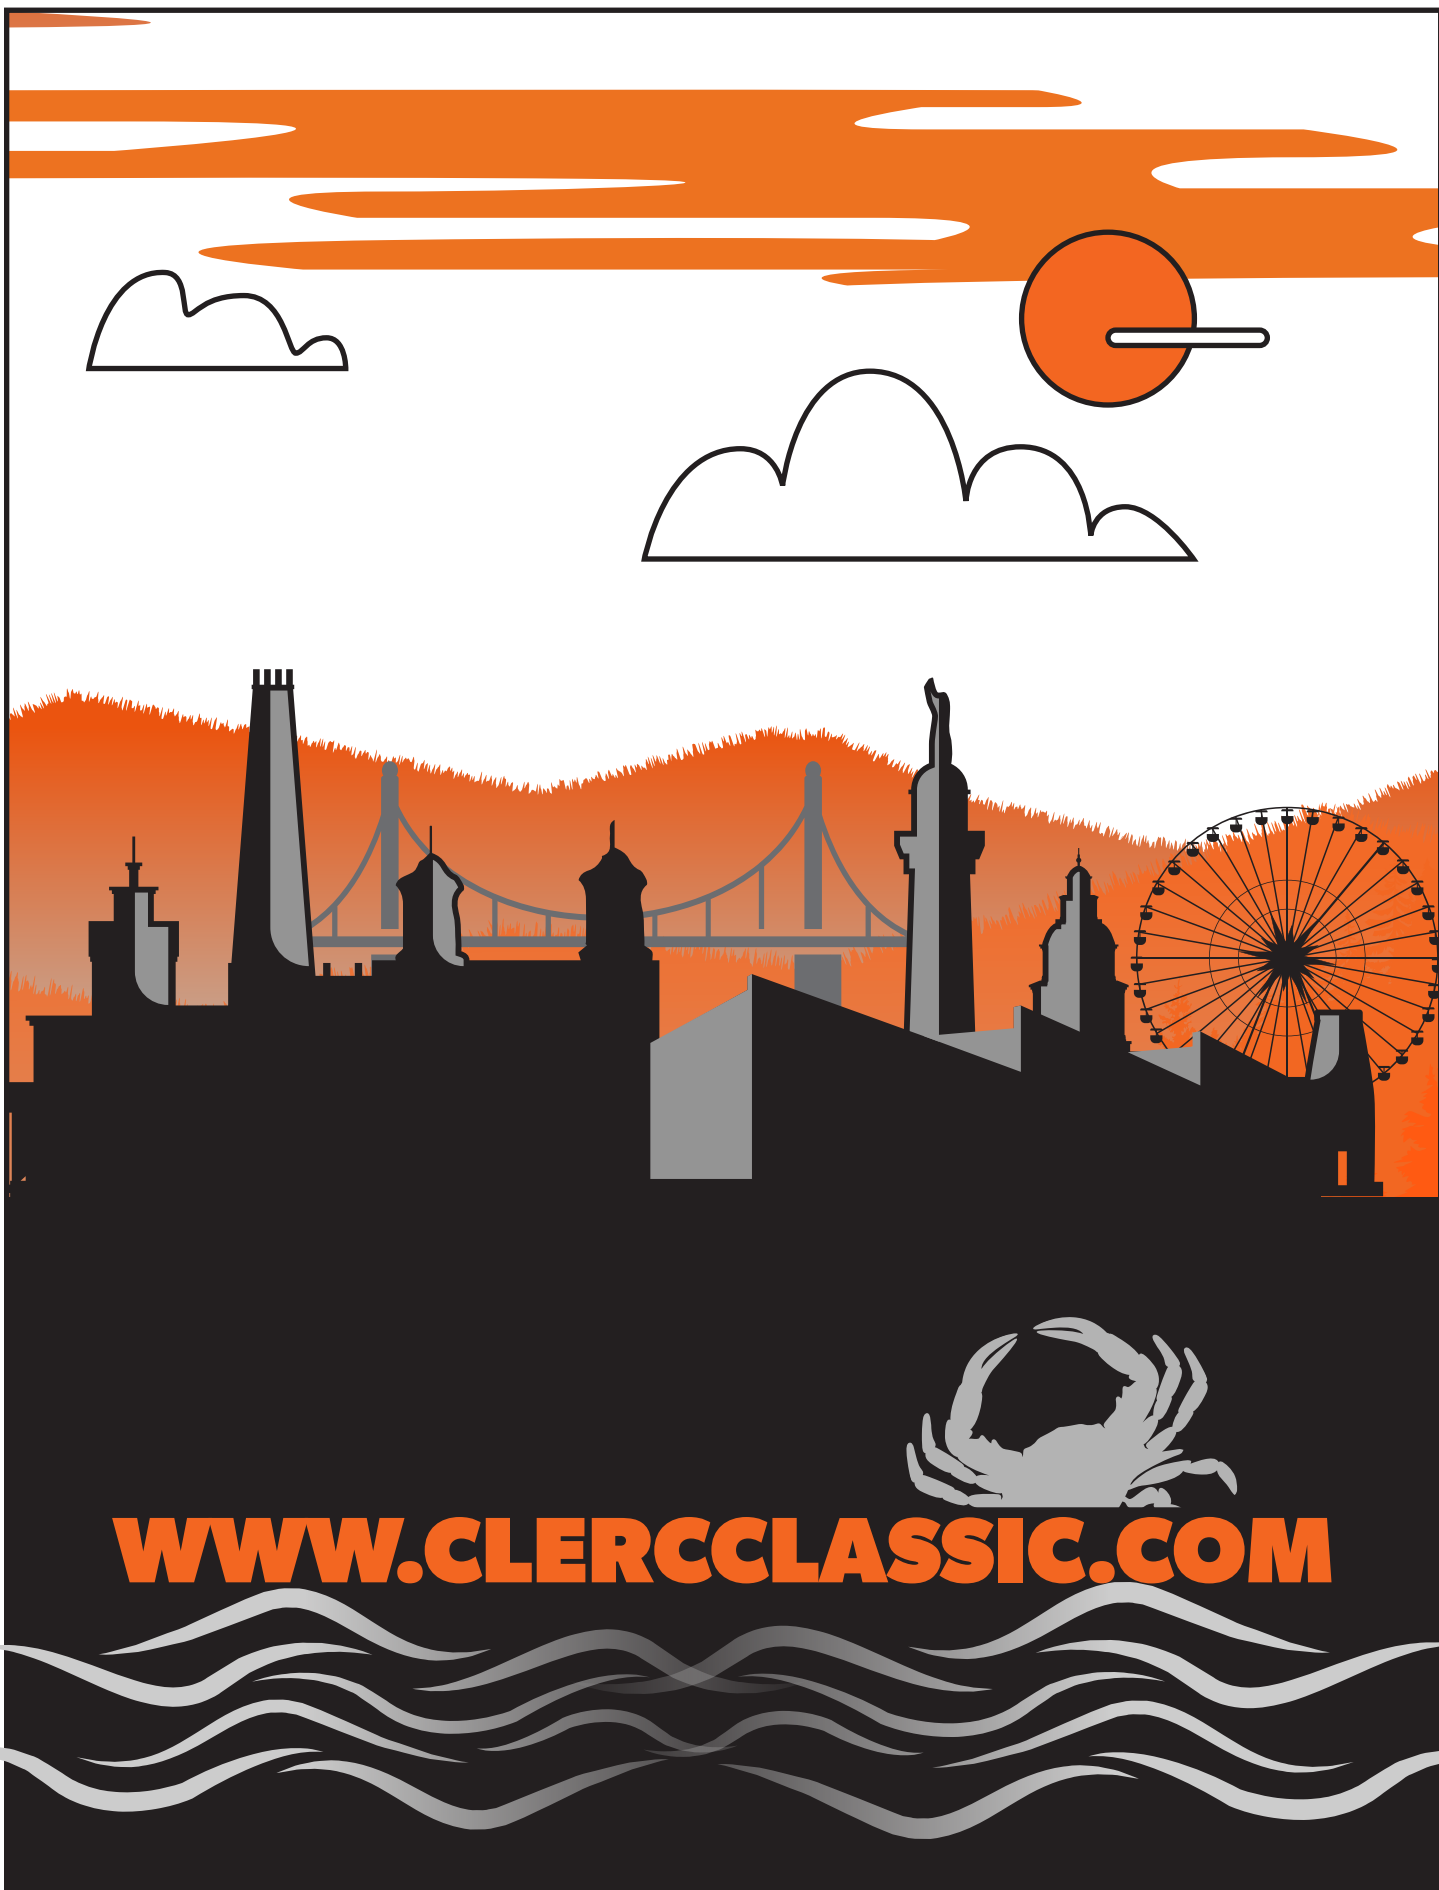

- English or Spanish user interface and English/Spanish VRS language toggle – easily choose your VRS language for each call
- Create your own video/text greeting for missed calls
- Group call for up to 10 devices – get that group project hammered out in sign language
- Transfer calls between devices – take a call while walking home then switch to Lumina or ntouch for computers
- myPhone – share one number, get the call on all your Sorenson VRS devices

FCC rules permit you to port your telephone number to the VRS provider of your choice. If you request a new number, Sorenson will provide you with one for the geographic area where you live or work. To ensure proper routing of 911 calls, it is important that you provide, and update in the event it changes, the physical address (i.e., the Registered Location) from which you are placing the call. You can update your Registered Location by calling 800-659-4810 or by visiting <https://sorenson.com/support/vrs/manage-account/>. Emergency calls made via internet-based TRS may not function the same as traditional E911 service. For example, you may not be able to dial 911 if there is an internet-service failure or if you lose electrical power, and your 911 call may not be routed correctly if you have not updated your Registered Location. Hearing point-to-point video users will not be able to place emergency calls. For more information on the process of obtaining ten-digit numbers and the limitations and risks associated with using Sorenson's VRS to place a 911 call, please visit Sorenson's website: www.sorenson.com/legal. For information on toll-free numbering, please visit <https://sorenson.com/tollfree>. VRS is not available for webinars
